

Was there anything in the passage that felt confusing or contradictory to other passages?

What similarities / differences can you see between yourself and characters in this passage?

What does this passage show us about Jesus (or the Father or Spirit)? How does it show him to be like / different than us?

What does this passage reveal about God that may be new to the those in the world? How would you present this view to someone who doesn't know Him, and why would it matter?

What difference does the gospel make in this passage?

How does this passage challenge, encourage, correct, or teach you more about the beauty of the gospel? What one step can you take this week to live in light of this truth?

Do you see any connections to Psalm 96 in the Luke passage? If so, what? How can this Psalm inform the way we can pray for one another?